COMPLAINTS OF THE POOR. And wherefore do the poor complain, The rich man asked of me Come walk abroad with me, I said, And I will answer thee.

Twas evening, and the frozen streets, Were cheerless to behold, And we were wrapt and coated well, And yet were very cold.

We met an old bare-headed man, His locks were few and white; I ask'd what he did abroad In that cold winter's night.

Twas bitter cold, indeed, he said, At home no fire had he, And therefore he had come abroad To ask for charity.

We met a young bare-footed child, And she begg'd loud and bold; I ask'd her what she did abroad, The wind it blew so cold.

She said her father was at home, And he lay sick in bed, And therefore was it she was sent, Abroad to search for bread. We saw a woman sitting down Upon a stone to rest, She had a baby at her back, Another at her breast. I ask'd her why she loitered there, The wind it was so chill?

She turn'd her head and bade the child, That screamed behind, be still-She told us that her husband serv'd A soldier far away, And therefore to her parish, she Was begging back her way.

I turn'd me to the rich man then, For silently stood he. You ask'd me why the poor complain-And these have answer'd thee! From the Albany Express. AN APPEAL TO MANHOOD.

Fathers, sons and brothers all, Would you do your duty? Would you save our precious lives And help preserve our beauty? Buy us then a new Machine, One to do our sewing; One of Grover & Baker's make, It is the best one going. Would you like our faces bright As a sunny morning? Would you see the rose of health

The cheeks you love adorning? Buy us then a new Machine, One to do our sewing; One of Grover & Baker's make, It is the best one going. Would you have the forms you love Rivalling the graces? Help to make their labor light, For care will leave its traces. Buy us then a new Machine, One to do our sewing; One of Grover & Baker's make,

It is the best one going. Now let each one do his part To make his own home sunny, Don't think that you'll accomplish this Without a little money; But buy at once a new Machine, One to do the sewing; One of Grover & Baker's make, It is the best one going.

Saratoga Springs. PSALMS OF DAVID. The following eloquent extract is from a late lecture by Henry Giles, on the Psalms of David: They resounded amidst the courts of the tabernacle; they floated through the lofty and solemn space of the temple; they were sung with glory in the Halls of Zion; they were sung with sorrow by the streams of Babel.— And when Israel had passed away, the harp of David was still awakened in the Church of Christ. In all the eras and ages of that church, from the hymn which it first whispered in an upper chamber until itsanthems filled the earth, the inspiration of the royal prophet has enraptured its devotions and ennobled its rituals. Chorused by the winds of heaven, they have swelled throughout now a large assortment of Minor & Horton's God's own on the sky and stars, they have rolled over the broad desert of Asia, in the matins and vespers of ten thousand hermits. They have rung through the deep valleys of the Alps, in the sobbing voices of the forlorn Waldenses, through the deeps and caves of the Scottish Highlands, in the rude chanting the heroic hallelujahs of princely pilgrims."
